GREAT RACERS THUNDERING IN UNISON WITH THE SURF.

Seem Impatient For The Fray.

* * *

The Grey Bess Racer, Furious and Devil, Buick String, Limbering For Action.

* * *

(BY ALICE NEWBALDER.)

The big gray Bess racer had its first spin on the beach yesterday morning, and although David Brown, the well known record holder, very prosperous and handsome whipe, he covered the measured mile in front of the grand stand in a clade under 30 seconds, which is very close to Marriott's record mile of the summer two year's ago in 29 1-5 seconds, and shows very clearly what Brown and George Ephraim, the Vanderbilt race winner, will do with this great road locomotive when it is properly tuned up and under the stress of racing competition.

Lipstick was not slow with his fast and famous Red Devil Buick, but he is a wilfully spectacular, he evidently being the giant buck to influence the racing, but he met with a slight accident on the way to the garage on Beach street when one of his rear wheels rolled off, injuring the rear axle of the car very slightly. It was put in shape here and some bracing work being done on it, and now is as good as it was before the accident.

The Buick string, or quartette, consisted themselves with a few brushes on the main running cars for less than a mile, but had one of the most meteoric spurts in the history of the sport. After making his debut at Brightcliff, where he made a good showing, he soon fell behind, only breaking the world's circular mile record at St. Paul, Minn., where he made a lap with the Cyclone in 30 seconds flat and later established the two mile world's record at Providence, R. I., in 4:26. Then came the Grand Prize race at Savannah, in which this driver distinguished himself by scoring the two fastest laps of the contest. DePalma's latest victories were with the Cyclone at the New Orleans Mardi Gras meet, where he entered seven events and won them all.

Local interest has been aroused in Miami No. 7, the Southern Prize and Horsepower Handicap, a five mile race open only to residents of Florida.

Among the entries are: H. de Rochemont, six cylinder Stevens-Duryea; W. E. Hotchkiss, Pope-Hartford; S. C. Thompson, Peerless; James Laughlin 3d, of Ireland, Cleveland, and a fast Packard Runabout.

Saturday's arrivals include R. F. Kelly, Chairman of the Board of Control of the National Cycling Association, and Karl L. Hoffman, President of the Federation of American Motor Cyclists, who will look after the bicycle and motorcycle racing. Inglis M. Uppercu, of New York and well known Cadillac dealer, is also here, accompanied by Mrs. Uppercu; Lieut. Phillip A. Sayles of the Ninety-second Regiment of New York. Representing the New York Times Club were on the same train, and had with him the McMurtry electric timing instrument for timing the races.

ROYAL TIME ON BOARD SWEETHEART.

The Good Ship Elaborately Decorated, Senator W. J. Morgan Guest of Honor.

CHEF AND WAITER TIMBER SPOILED

* * *

Mr. Burgoyne begs the favor of your company at lunch on board the splendidly sweetheart. Anchors at the Bonhomie at Ten O'clock, Monday morning, March twenty-first, Nineteen hundred and Nine.

So read the invitation and promptly at ten o'clock a jolly party composed of local residents, race meet officials, racing men and newspaper men embarked upon the motor yacht Sweetheart at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and returned at 3 p. m., after a delightful trip to Mosquito Inlet, where while at anchor nine boat Burgoyne served a delightful Southern dinner in which figured pilau, mangoves and delicious strawberry shortcake. The strawberries, one of the after-dinner speakers declared, were each grown separately in a forty-acre lot, on account of their size and sweetness, and that if Mr. Burgoyne had not been a great printer, he would have made a great chef and waiter. The Sweetheart was elaborately decorated with bunting flags representing the code words, "Sweetheart, Morgan Go Brugh" and the following sentiment was posted at the head of the cabin gangway—"In honor of Senator Morgan and the men who have so ably seconded his efforts to make the Automobile Tournament a success—The Sweetheart, March 21st 1909. The guest list follows: S. A. Miles, G. B. Seaman, T. E. Fitzgerald, Neville H. Clark, Al. C. Thompson, F. W. Pope, Major J. D. C. Morris, F. J. Wagner, Col. C. M. Bingham, Dr. E. L. Stewart, W. J. RIFLES HAVE LARGE VOTE.

* * *

What has happened to the Elks? Has the remarkable run of that Order come to a close? The last few counts in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest has shown that the Rifles are leaving the Elks farther behind each time. The Daytona High School is still voting strong too.

The count of Saturday evening gave the Halifax Rifles a gain of about 130,000 on the Daytona High School.

Outside of Daytona the Kingston school again slipped by the Seabreeze school and Miss Spaulding has passed the Seabreeze Congregational church.

Just bear in mind that the contest closes the 31st of this month. Remember also that 500 votes are given with every $1.50 paid on subscription to the Gazette-News.

ALL NEWS IN DAILY NEWS.

Read the Daily News this week for all the news. Besides giving the official program for the day you will be tipped off much else of interest not coming within the province of the programs to record.

Alex Schwalbach, secretary of the races and head of the press gang, said probably the best posted and best equipped man in all the country for such service, has been secured as the Daily News' special staff correspondent. Mr Schwalbach will contribute the racing news in his picturesque and inimitable style. This is sufficient guarantee that the service will be both accurate and complete.

Tomorrow and for three succeeding days—covering the period of the racing carnival—the Daily News will appear as a morning paper. You will readily recognize the advantage to the reader in such change.

While racing events will be strongly featured all other important news will receive merited attention and as in the past you may depend upon getting full accounts of all happenings worth while.

PREPARE FOR THE PARADE.

* * *

Some have gotten the idea that there is an entry fee for the parade scheduled for Wednesday morning. That's a mistake; it's all free, even to the trip across the bridge.

It is requested that all hotels and as many private houses along the route of parade as well, decorate and "look pleasant" as the great spectacular pageant moves grandly by.

Be on hand at or near City Hall, Beach street, promptly at 9:00 a. m. sharp, Wednesday.

Why Out So Early?

This afternoons' Daily News is hardly up to the daily standard in amount of news matter, but a careful reading will reveal a quantity of "A No. 1," so what may be lacking in quantity it is hoped you may find duly compensated for in quality.

The shift from afternoon to morning edition necessitates the issuance of practically two papers today, hence a perceptible curtailment in amount of type set.

This explains why you hear the voice of the "Newsy" on the streets a couple of hours earlier than usual.

BIG LEAGUE BALL CLUB TO PLAY EXHIBITION GAME.

PONY NEWS SERVICE SUSPENDED.

News of The Great Speed Carnival Will Now Take Precedence Over Telegraph.

NEXT YEAR BIGGER AND BETTER.

* * *

With this issue the Daily News' telegraph service closes for the season of 1908-9. It was a condensed service, to be sure. No town in the world of the size of Daytona could support a paper that would take the full news service, whether Associated Press, United Press, Scripps-Mellet & what not.

The Daily News got a condensed United Press service, and those of you who took the pains to glance over it daily got first hand from this paper many interesting news happenings which otherwise you would have waited for from one to three days. It was of daily occurrence that after-dinner happenings were given out to you by 3 to 4 o'clock—within an hour or two of their occurrence. Saturday the Daily News gave you first news of the 20-year sentence of Col. Duncan and Robin Cooper to the Tennessee penitentiary.

Even the pony news service is an expensive thing to handle, but the Daily News started out to give you a progressive, wide-awake, snappy paper, worth your patronage, a paper you would not be ashamed to read and pass along, and a hundred progressive, representative people have said that it is a credit to the city; they have said more, that it has been a constant surprise to them where we get so much news, and how we can afford to give so much.

Having achieved such gratifying success for this season, the editor has already matured plans for a larger and better paper next season. It will require a more liberal patronage, but it is to your interest, to Daytona's interest, to extend such patronage.

Undoubtedly you must all recognize the importance of maintaining a daily paper for the winter season from now on. A daily paper, a wide-awake and up-to-date paper is now recognized as an essential institution; the sooner you fall in line and help to push it the speedier the benefits to everybody.

The Daily News' facilities for having such a paper are better than ever before. The office is now splendidly equipped. The folder installed at the beginning of the season has been a timesaver.

The next stroke, looking toward an improved and enlarged paper will be the introduction of a Mergenthaler Linotype machine. By this arrangement two operators can do the work of eight men, setting type by hand. The Daily News expects by next season to have the linotype in operation, and if the public will "warm up" to the daily, thousands of people next season will be impressed by the fact that Daytona is on the Florida map, and that the "note" she makes sounds more like prosperity than that heard elsewhere in the State.

Brooklyn Superbas to Visit Daytona.

Base Ball Fans Promised a Star Attraction Last Day Of The Races.

* * *

An attractive added feature on the program is the invitation by Manager Morgan, extended to and accepted by the Brooklyn Base Ball Club who are now training at Jacksonville, to come to Daytona next Friday morning, the last day of the meet. The entire Brooklyn party numbering over thirty, including the ladies and press representatives now in Jacksonville, will come by a special train which is now being arranged for, and after luncheon two teams made up from the Brooklyn aggregation will play an exhibition game at the local ball grounds, and after that they will be taken in automobiles to the beach to see the races and for a dip in the surf; then after an automobile ride through the streets to inspect the charms of "Delightful Daytona," they will return to Jacksonville by their special train.

John Anderson expects to bring a carload of base ball fans from St. Augustine; Jacksonville is enthusiastic over the idea; Ormond is interested, and the scheme should provide an overwhelming crowd at the ball ground, and at the races.

MUSICALE AT IVY LANE INN.

* * *

The series of musicals that Mrs. Bohannon for several weeks has been arranging for the Inn, came to a close last Thursday evening with a program of unusual excellence.

The particular attraction was Miss Perkins, who easily captured the hearts of the guests by her beautiful rendering of selections from the greatest composers.

It is doubtful if Mrs. Church and Mrs. Bohannon ever sang better than on this occasion.

Mrs. Church won a double recall for her singing of the "Camelia and the Rose," and in the song, "Dear Heart, I Love You," Mrs. Bohannon charmed with the sympathetic quality that seems to especially belong to the contralto voice. But it was in their duo work that these sweet singers gave the greatest pleasure and won the richest harvest of applause.

W. Roxby and Mrs. Belle Abbott Haynes were quietly married Saturday evening at the home of the bride on Bay street, the Rev. Byron F. Marsh performing the ceremony.

GREAT RACERS THUNDERING IN UNISON WITH THE SURF.

Seem Impatient For The Fray.

* * *

Big Grey Benz Racer, Furious Red Devil, Buick String, Limbering For Action.

(BY ALEX SCHWALBACH.)

The big gray Benz racer had its first tryout on the beach yesterday morning, and although David Bruce Brown, the ace amateur record holder, very properly held it under wraps, he covered the measured mile in front of the grand stand in a shade under 30 seconds, which is pretty close to Marriott's record mile in the steamer two year's ago in .28 1-5 seconds, and shows very clearly what Brown and George Robertson, the Vanderbilt race winner, will do with this great road locomotive when it is properly tuned up and under the stress of driving competition.

Kilpatrick was out also with his fast and furious Red Devil Hotchkiss but did nothing spectacular, he evidently holding the giant back to influence the betting, but he met with a slight accident on the way to the garage on Beach street when one of his rear wheels rolled off and injured the rear axle of the car very slightly. It was put in shape last night, some brazing work being done upon it, and now is as good as it was before the accident.

The Buick string, or quartette, consisted themselves with a few brushes on the beach and some private tryouts on the road outside of the town.

Ralph DePalma reached town late Saturday night with his two Italian mechanicians but the Fiat Cyclone did not arrive until today. This is DePalma's first appearance here, although Emanuel Cedrino drove the Fiat Cyclone to victory here last year. DePalma, who has been running cars for less than a year, has had one of the most meteoric careers in the history of the sport. After making his debut at Briarcliff, where he made a good showing, he soon followed this by breaking the world's circular mile record at St. Paul, Minn., when he made a lap with the Cyclone in 36 seconds flat, and later established the five mile world's record at Providence, R. Among the entries are: E. A. Rockwell, six cylinder Stevens-Duryea; E. R. Hotchkiss, Pope-Hartford; H. C. Thompson, Peerless; James Laughlin 3d, of Zellwood, Cleveland, and a fast Packard Runabout.

Yesterday's arrivals include R. F. Kelley, Chairman of the Board of Control of the National Cycling Association, and Earl L. Ovington, President of the Federation of American Motor Cyclists, who will look after the bicycle and motorcycle racing. Inglis M. Attorney E. F. Oates returned Saturday night from a stay of two days at Deland on legal business.

AUTOMOBILE FOR CHARTER—Four cylinder Stevens-Duryea, hour or trip, call Morgan House, phone 110.

The watch given away Saturday night by the Lyceum Comedy Co., went to Miss Mabbette, daughter of Mr and Mrs. I. M. Mabbette, of Palmetto avenue.

Frank B. Collins, who for many winters has been the efficient right hand man with Graham Thompson in the bicycle livery of the latter, left Saturday morning for Washington, D. C., where he will in all probability be assigned for duty as mounted policeman in the State of Nevada. Mr. Collins has seen several years' service as cavalryman in the regular army, did cavalry duty in the Philippines, has a medal as expert rifleman, and would make a first rate officer.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Mar. 22.—Mrs. Emma D. Taylor and niece, Miss Grace Thorn, of Rochester, N. Y., who have been rooming at the Abercrombie house, left for the North today.

Mrs. M. H. Clark, of Owensboro, Ky., is at the Princess Issena.

Mrs. Olivia F. Green and son, Alton, and sister-in-law, of Galesburg, Ill., arrive from Miami today and will spend two weeks in Seabreeze. Mrs. Green has spent a number of seasons in Seabreeze and has a large circle of friends who will welcome her return.

Miss Blakeslee will spend race week at the beach, guest of Misses Anthorp, at Blarney Castle.

R. G. Brown, who has been visiting his uncle, Mr Brown, on Palmetto avenue, expects to leave tomorrow afternoon for his home town, Bayville, Conn.

Miss Mary Evenden, who came over from Rollins College, Monday, with three other students and chaperone to play tennis against the Ormond team, came down from Ormond Friday morning for a few days' visit with her parents Dr. and Mrs. Evenden, and left this morning on her return to Rollins.

The Moor and My Horse.

The horsemanship of the Moors is primitive and entirely unscientific. A Moor never walks when he can ride, and never by any chance gets off to ease his beast. Here a Moorish pony would have shocked at the many walks enforced on tired men by well meaning cavalry colonels in South Africa! He would have said to himself: "I don't think much of animals that can't carry fifteen stone fifteen hours a day. I must be a really superior kind of beast." The Moorish mind Gounod hence always spends his nights in the open. He is never groomed or clipped. His youth is passed wandering unbridled over the vast fields. When in work he gets all the barley he wants at night and a drink before his feed in the evening. From 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. he is expected to work and to work hard without bite or sup. His saddle is a wooden tree superimposed on at least half a dozen folded blankets, the thickness of which often reaches six inches, and he never gets a sore back.—London Spectator.

DAYTONA BEACH, Mar. 22.—The "Poverty Social" at the parsonage Friday night, held under the auspices of the Epworth League, measured socially was the greatest success "ever." There were many young people and children than the parsonage could hold and almost as many grownups as children. Nearly everybody was dressed in fantastic costume, 'some rame in rags, some in togs and some in old paddling gowns" and those who were not, knowing the rules of the evening, marched up and paid their silver offering for visitation of same. A lengthy program had been prepared but the house was too packed to carry it out. However, the following part was well rendered:

1. Selection (piano and harmonica) Mrs E. Wilson and A. Vandevorde.
2. Recitation—Seymour Mason.
3. Duet—Misses Aman.
4. Song—Miss Yerrington.
5. Reading—Miss Mattie Johnson.
6. Selection (solo, violin, piano) Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Miss Stewart.
7. Piano selection—Mrs. Brooks

Taking a picture by flash-light, by Artist Rudgen, was quite an interesting procedure. Everybody was ready for ice cream a little later on, and a little later still the adieus were made and everybody carried home with them the impression that the leaguers are a great social organization for the peninsula. The secretary, Mrs. Dryer, reported the net receipts of the evening something over $9.00. The prizes for costumes were awarded Miss Louie VanValzah and Elmer Yerrington.

One Thing He Could Not Have.

Although there was no sort of toy which could be bought and for which Harold had expressed a desire that was not in his possession, he still had his unsatisfied longings. "I know what I wish I was, mother," he said one day when told one big brother had gone away and the little boy across the street was ill.

"Yes, dear," said his mother. "Perhaps you can be it, Harold; mother will help you. Is it to play soldier?"

"No, indeed!" said Harold scornfully. "I just wish I was two little boys, so I could play together."—Youth's Companion.

The Modern Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realised that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.
The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk circling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, quick and open, their bunkers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.
The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extend festoons of Spanish moss away as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you are distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.
Surpassing Beauty at Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commends more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of those charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are nowhere to be seen rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"
Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is the fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.
Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkway, the entire city becomes a great park.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports none and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.
Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or ave nations one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor is a born "gunner" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, sassy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard rows of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where sport's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the reeds and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.
This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled. It will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Miniature Trees That Are Grown In China Bowls.
In the window of a florist stood many quaint china bowls, in each of which grew a tree—not a shrub, but a full sized tree, dating back many years.
"Yes," replied the florist to the writer's inquiry, "they are real trees only, maples and beech trees. We get them from Japan, where the secret of how to rear them is known only to a few. They are raised from seeds of specially selected cuttings, which are watched and tended with that marvelous patience inherent in the eastern races. Fifty years may pass before the tree be considered salable. During this period the plant is trained and its natural tendencies subjugated to the will of the owner. The gardener prunes the roots and rears and directs with what Carlyle called genius—an infinite capacity for taking pains. A wayward twig may be bound up for two or three years to insure its correct growth. Periodically the tree is repotted. Each time this happens the roots are carefully examined and tree less fiber cut away. Everything is done to concentrate the life of the tree in the smallest possible space. And in time, after years of labor, the plant loses its ability to send out long lusty shoots and becomes a delightful miniature of its larger brethren."

The Clarendon orchestra furnished the music for the regular Saturday evening dance at The Despland, the affair being a very delightful one.
Major and Mrs. Downing of Middlesex, Ohio, guests at The Despland, entertained those staying with an exceptionally pleasing vocal and instrumental concert Sunday evening.
Something Similar.
"Have you a copy of the 'Stolen Bride?'" inquired a visitor to a music seller.
"I am afraid I don't know of such a song."
"Why, it goes like this." And the customer hummed the tune.
"Why, you mean 'The Lost Chord!'" cried the assistant.
"Ah, that's it!"
Highly Flattered.
"Your glasses," she said, "have made a great difference in your appearance."
"Do you think so?" he asked.
"Yes. You look so intelligent with them on."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A wayward twig may be bound up for two or three years to insure its correct growth. Periodically the tree is repotted. Each time this happens the roots are carefully examined and useless fiber cut away. Everything is done to concentrate the life of the tree in the smallest possible space. And in time, after years of labor, the plant loses its ability to send out long, lusty shoots and becomes a delightful miniature of its larger brethren."

Fowler, Elizabeth, N. J.; J. F. Conklin, Jr., Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gray Misses Greeta and Melba Gray, Rochester, N. Y.

The Clarendon orchestra furnished the music for the regular Saturday evening dance at The Despland, the affair being a very delightful one.

Major and Mrs. Downing, of Middleport, Ohio, guests at The Despland, entertained those staying with an exceptionally pleasing vocal and instrumental concert Sunday evening.

Something Similar.

"Have you a copy of the 'Stolen Rope?'" inquired a visitor to a music seller.

"I am afraid I don't know of such a song."

"Why, it goes like this." And the customer hummed the tune.

"Why, you mean 'The Lost Chord!'" said the assistant.

"Ah, that's it!"

Highly Flattered.

"Your glasses," she said, "have made a great difference in your appearance."

"Do you think so?" he asked.

"Yes. You look so intelligent with them on."—Chicago Record-Herald.

His Mean Comment.

Wife (reading)—Here's the advertisement of a matrimonial agency offering to supply any man with a wife for a guinea.

Husband—Oh, of course; it costs less to get into trouble than it does to get out again.—London Scrap.

Cheered Him Up.

The prisoner was downcast.

"Cheer up," said his lawyer. "I've got a jury of twelve men too stupid to find out that you're guilty."

Naturally the client took a more hopeful view.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Queer Battle.

A traveler in South Africa tells of a singular conflict that he witnessed. He was musing one morning, with his eyes on the ground, when he noticed a caterpillar crawling along at a rapid pace, followed by hundreds of small ants. Being quicker in their movements, the ants would catch up with the caterpillar, and one would mount his back and bite him. Pausing, the caterpillar would turn his head and bite the ant and kill his tormentor. After slaughtering a dozen or more of his persecutors the caterpillar showed signs of fatigue. The ants made a combined attack. Retaining himself to a stalk of grass, the caterpillar climbed up tall first, followed by the ants. As one approached he seized it in his jaws and threw it off the stalk. The ants, seeing the caterpillar had too strong a position for them to overcome, resorted to strategy. They began sawing through the grass stalk. In a few moments the stalk fell, and hundreds of ants poured upon the caterpillar. It was killed at once.

Taking the Step.

It happened while a marriage was being celebrated. The bridegroom did not have the usual happy, bashful look. Instead he seemed to be profoundly unhappy and fidgeted about, standing first on one foot and then on the other.

So patent was his state of mental unquiet that the "best man" deemed it expedient to elucidate the mystery. "Have ye lost the ring?" he solicitously inquired.

"No," answered the unhappy one, with a woeful look; "the ring's safe enough, but, man, I've lost my enthusiasm."—London Scrap.

Impressed.

"I appear to have made something of an impression on that man over there," remarked a young spark at a washing party. "He has been looking at me ever since I arrived."

"If you mean that one with the black mustache, he's the detective engaged to look after the presents!" said a friend.

Very Little Change.

"It's three years since I was in this city," said a stranger in a restaurant as he was waiting out after finishing his dinner; "city looks the same."

"I don't find much change!" responded the waiter as he took up the nickel that was left on the table.

Quite Handy.

"The automobile is a great institution."

"How so?"

"You can sit up in it as you pass a friend and crawl under it when a creditor hoves into sight."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Brave Reply.

The Sunday School Teacher—And now, children, can you tell me, when Balaam and his ass conversed, what language they spoke in? Little Harry Green—Please, sir, Assyrian.—Bellman.

Water Soaked Inside and Outside at the Morning Toilet.

Matrons of the west may be interested to hear the details of the Nigerian native baby's morning toilet. Anything over three months old is no longer a "baby" to the native mothers, families and is bathed with the other children, generally a numerous brood, in the chill morning air before sunrise. The little ones yells lustily while the cold water is splashed over its brown body and generally continues the chorus when put aside to dry. Towels do not form part of the household equipment. The bathing process finished, the infants are subjected to a sort of water cure treatment. The mother serves a child, scoops up a handful of water and, using her thumb as a kind of spout, squirts it with extraordinary dexterity into the youngster's mouth and down its throat. Presents in the shape of shell purples, horrible chokings and desperate struggles are quite unheeded. The steady stream of water continues to pour down the child's throat until the mother's practiced touch on the patient's distended stomach tells her that the limit of capacity has been reached. All babies are then retired to their sweetened, which is believed to have a most strengthening effect.—London Standard.

Matrons of the west may be interested to hear the details of the Nigerian native baby's morning toilet. Anything over three months old is no longer a "baby" to the native materfamilias and is bathed with the other children, generally a numerous brood, in the chill morning air before sunrise. The little mite yells lustily while the cold water is splashed over its brown body and generally continues the chorus when put aside to dry. Towels do not form part of the household equipment. The bathing process finished, the infants are subjected to a sort of water cure treatment. The mother seizes a child, scoops up a handful of water and, using her thumb as a kind of spout, squirts it with extraordinary dexterity into the youngster's mouth and down its throat. Protests in the shape of loud gurgles, horrible chokings and desperate struggling are quite unheeded. The steady stream of water continues to pour down the child's throat until the mother's practiced touch on the patient's distended stomach tells her that the limit of capacity has been reached. All babies are submitted to this treatment, which is believed to have a most strengthening effect.—London Standard.

The extra settees provided on the platform at the F. E. C. Ry. depot last week, have proved a source of comfort to the many travelers waited upon the belated trains. It is much more comfortable, also, on the platform, in pleasant weather than in the stuffy little waiting room, and the agent deserves thanks for his thought in securing these additional benches.
